SHOW HUNTERS

A hunter horse should be a horse with sufficient bone and substance (without being overweight) to give the appearance of being able to carry their rider for a full day's riding over varying, and sometimes rough, terrain. The hunter should be a bold, powerful and strong workhorse comprising quality breeding and exceptional manners, as stated by the Hunter Horse Association of Australia. If you are unsure as to whether your horse or pony is a Hunter or Hack, please see the judge in this ring PRIOR to judging. Horses or ponies who are not true hunter type will not compete in this ring. Horses must be presented in plain brow bands.
